Céline and Concerts West / AEG Presents make the safety and health of their customers a top priority. Assuming that security will again be ensured, the COURAGE WORLD TOUR will restart through Europe in Paris on March 19, 2021, with 6 concerts at Paris La Défense Arena and will stop in 32 cities until July 2021, notably passing through Carhaix (Les Vieilles Charrues) July 15.

"I really hoped that we would be back on stage this year, but nothing is more important than everyone's health and safety", said Céline. "The whole world is going through such difficult times because of this devastating virus and my heart goes out to all those who suffer. I know that we will overcome this ordeal together, and that we will make up for all this lost time. I miss the concerts with you... I can't wait to sing all together again. Pay attention to you... see you soon!"

Tickets purchased for the 2020 concerts are valid for new shows rescheduled for 2021. If you would like more information or to know all of the options, ticket holders are invited to contact their original point of sale.
