CÉLINE DION ANNOUNCES THE POSTPONEMENT OF THE EUROPEAN DATES OF THE "COURAGE WOLRD TOUR" IN 2022

The dates scheduled between March 16 and June 16, 2021 are rescheduled from May 25 to September 24, 2022.

LAS VEGAS - February 17, 2021 - Due to the current COVID-19 pandemic and current restrictions on public events, Céline Dion deeply regret to inform you that her "Courage World Tour" concerts in Europe must be postponed again. The dates will resume in Europe from May 25, 2022 in Birmingham, England.

Céline and Concerts West / AEG Presents always make the safety and health of their spectators a top priority. Originally scheduled for 2020, the dates in Europe for the "Courage World Tour" were postponed for the first time to 2021 and are now rescheduled, with determination and with ever greater hope, in 2022.

Céline said: "In Europe, we were really hoping to see you all in the spring, but obviously it takes a lot longer than we thought, for everyone to be safe. At least now the vaccines are coming, so we have a really good feeling for these shows in 2022 and I can't wait for all of us to sing together again. We will make up for all this wasted time, so until then, please take care of yourself."

Tickets purchased for the concerts of 2020 and 2021 remain of course valid for the new shows rescheduled in 2022.

The ticket office and refunds will be open from February 18, 2021, 10 a.m. If you wish to obtain further information or to know all the options (purchase, exchange, refund), ticket holders are invited to contact their original point of sale.

For France, the rescheduled dates of the "Courage World Tour" are:

Paris La Défense Arena

September 16, 2022 (postponement of 06/26/20 and 03/19/21)
