

CELINE DION ANNOUNCES THE POSTPONEMENT OF HER EUROPEAN DATES TO 2023

The dates scheduled between May 25 and September 24, 2022 are rescheduled from February 24 to October 4, 2023. The new dates at *Paris La Défense Arena (September 2023) will be announced within 2 weeks.

LAS VEGAS – April 29, 2022 – As Celine Dion continues her recovery from a recent health issue, the entertainer has announced that she is postponing all concerts on her European “Courage World Tour” scheduled for 2022, to 2023.

Celine Dion, whose tour was interrupted after 52 concerts due to the pandemic in March 2020, is undergoing treatment for acute and continuous muscle spasms, which prevent her from going on stage and her healing takes longer than she didn't expect it. Celine Dion is followed by her medical team who takes care of the treatment.

“I'm so sorry to have to change the dates of the European tour again; the first time it was because of the pandemic, now it's because of my health” Celine Dion said. “I feel a little better... but I still have spasms sometimes. To be on stage, I have to be in top form. To be honest, I can't wait, but I'm not quite ready yet...I'm trying my best to come back 100% to get on stage, because that's what you deserve.”

Tickets for the dates concerned (postponements from 2020 and 2021) will of course be valid for the new shows in 2023. If you wish to obtain further information or to know the possible options, those in possession of tickets are invited to contact their point of original sale.
